From the General Secretary

Welcome to this second edition of our Handbook in its new format.

There are some 470 churches affiliated to the Fellowship and that number continues to grow so that, with this volume, you have more information than has ever been available before.

We have made several adjustments to this edition which we hope will make it even easier to use. The added facility of the FIEC web site means that we are now in a position to update information regularly and provide links to individual church web pages.

This volume is more than a resource for those who are inquisitive about FIEC. It gives a detailed shape to a significant network of Bible believing, gospel preaching churches and pastors throughout England, Scotland and Wales with Dunamanagh Baptist Church as the only affiliated congregation in Northern Ireland.

FIEC is not the only evangelical network, of course. We are enriched by our growing relationships with other churches and church groupings which have the same high regard for scripture and preach the same gospel.

The Fellowship owes an enormous debt to the increasing army of volunteers which works to ensure that affiliation is more than a nominal attachment. There is much more to be done to make our relationships even more meaningful but we praise God for what has been accomplished and look to Him for future growth and encouragement.

Bev Savage
General Secretary

HOW TO USE THIS HANDBOOK

1 FINDING A CHURCH

Do you know the PLACE? Find it in the index on pages 13 - 22.

Do you know the AREA? Turn to the map on page 9, find the REGION and turn to its section in the coloured pages.

2 FINDING A MINISTER

Do you know his NAME? Turn to 'The Pastors' Association' section on pages 123 -179 where names are listed alphabetically.

Do you know the CHURCH he serves? Follow the instructions above and search the church details.

3 FINDING INFORMATION

All the churches currently linked with the FIEC are listed on the following pages. The list is set out region by region, beginning with Region 1 (Scottish), through to Region 11 (South Eastern).

The following abbreviations are used in the data sections of this Handbook.

P	Pastor
AP	Assistant Pastor
E	Elder
CW	Church Worker
S	Church Secretary
A	Administrator
C	Church Correspondent
Su	Sunday

Times of Sunday worship are included in each church entry, but not the details of week-night meetings, as these frequently change and are therefore soon out of date.

Each church entry has a maximum of three names and addresses. Additional details in many instances may be obtained via the FIEC Web Site (www.fiec.org.uk), to which the web pages of more than 100 churches are linked. By this means, all the information which a church makes public electronically is immediately available to you.

FIEC PASTORS' ASSOCIATION

The FIEC Pastors' Association, which has replaced the FIEC list of accredited ministers, was formed at the Annual Assembly in 1998. A brief summary of its purpose and activities is included as Appendix E in this Handbook.

The alphabetical list which follows includes all full members of the Association. Associate members, who may be either trainee or prospective ministers, are not included.

Against each entry is a code letter indicating one of four membership categories:

A Serving Ministers
B Itinerant Ministers
C Retired Ministers
D Probationer Ministers

(See Appendix E for a fuller explanation of these categories)

FIEC INFORMATION AND RESOURCES

Its History

The Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches is the name of an association which began in November 1922 as 'A Fellowship of Undenominational and Unattached Churches and Missions.' The man God used to bring it into being, the Rev E J Poole-Connor, was a minister in Aldershot in 1893 while still in his early twenties.

E J Poole-Connor knew the Rev C H Spurgeon, an outstanding Victorian Baptist preacher, and was greatly influenced by him. Those who joined him to form the new association were convinced that loyalty to the truth of God revealed in the Bible is the only basis of true fellowship.

In 1923, the association published its first register of pastors, evangelists and congregations accepting the Doctrinal Basis and who were not members of any church denomination.

They had two primary convictions. The first was to defend the evangelical faith, which was being denied by many who called themselves Christian. The second was that this evangelical faith, and nothing else, would be the bond that united them. They would not be joined by forms of worship, nor particular interpretations of Scripture on issues that lay outside the Doctrinal Basis but by the central truths of historic evangelical Christianity.

Its Aims

The FIEC exists to promote the welfare of undenominational Bible churches and to give expression to their essential oneness in the fundamental doctrines of historic evangelical Christianity. It is committed to defending the truth set out in its Doctrinal Basis and to promoting a united testimony to the world.

What it Does

The main work of the Fellowship is to support, resource and inform churches. It offers spiritual guidance in times of need and, through the Pastors' Association, it is able to introduce churches and leaders to each other.

It gathers and disseminates practical information and advises churches on current theological, moral and social issues. In addition it sponsors, promotes and oversees church planting projects in the UK and has its own leadership training programme entitled Prepared for Service.

Its Composition

Although it has now grown to become an association of 470 churches spread throughout the United Kingdom the FIEC still adheres to the convictions of its founding fathers.

Independent churches are linked by their adherence to the doctrinal basis. They are essentially 'Bible' churches that work together to support and encourage one another and share in joint projects arranged through the Fellowship.

Churches large and small, newly formed and long established, in their own building or in rented premises - all who adhere wholeheartedly to the Doctrinal Basis find a place among us.

There are also over 600 individual supporters, known as Associates. Their personal interest in the work of the Fellowship both locally and nationally, and their financial support, is greatly appreciated.

How it Functions

Each church is linked with others in one of eleven regions that extend throughout the UK. There is also provision for closer fellowship within smaller, local groups of churches each of which is encouraged to appoint a 'Visitor' who offers support and guidance and stimulates inter-church fellowship. There are over 50 such groups.

The central activities of the Fellowship are under the direction of a Council of 34 members elected by the churches. Twenty-two of them are chosen regionally and 11 as a result of national elections. The Council meets three times a year and the President, a senior Pastor who is chosen to serve the Fellowship for three years, chairs its meetings.

The Council acts on behalf of the churches in making policy, initiating projects, safeguarding the Fellowship's integrity and in meeting the legal responsibilities of trustees. It employs staff to help it fulfil its work.

Committees

The Council does its work through a range of Committees, each of which meets three or four times a year.

The Executive Committee is the senior committee of the Council whose functions are to initiate and progress planning and to act as a first-line advisory committee for the General Secretary.

The work of the Finance Committee is demanding - particularly during a time of growth. It monitors the financial implications of the activities of the Council and its committees and advises on financial policy.

The Churches Recognition and Care Committee is responsible for processing applications for affiliation from churches and from people who wish to become Associate Members. It also administers the church Groups and Visitor scheme and promotes projects which specifically help churches in their work.

The primary function of the Theological Committee is to give guidance on biblical matters and to commission, prepare and publish literature that will help churches. Several important subjects have been addressed in this way in recent years. A full list of FIEC publications is available from the Croydon Office.

The Citizenship Committee discusses and monitors current political, social and moral issues that have an impact on the work of churches or the lives of individual Christians. It publishes information in its Citizenship Bulletins and each edition contains up-to-date material on significant topical issues.

The Outreach Committee acts as the pioneering arm of the FIEC. It researches areas where church-planting work may be done and oversees such projects. It also recruits workers and encourages churches in all aspects of their evangelism.

The Editorial Committee is responsible for producing our in-house magazine, 'Together', twice a year. It is designed to disseminate news and promote interest and prayer. The committee also manages the FIEC web site where a considerable amount of information about the Fellowship is published. Visit us on www.fiec.org.uk.

An FIEC annual event is held in April each year when several thousand believers gather for a full programme of Bible ministry and seminars on spiritual, theological and practical issues. This is organised by two committees of the Council, one of which deals with the content of the programme and the other with all the practical arrangements. During this gathering the Assembly Meeting is held when the Council and church delegates conduct the business of the Fellowship.

How it is Supported

Support comes principally through its affiliated churches and Associates. Considerable resources are needed to maintain the services which the Fellowship provides. In addition to its everyday needs, special projects are regularly undertaken which individual churches could not carry through. All of these require prayer, funding and the skill of those who are committed to making the work as effective as possible.

APPENDICES

APPENDIX A

CONSTITUTION

As amended by the Extraordinary Assembly of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches on 12 October 1991
And the Assembly of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches on 15 April, 1998

1. Name

The Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches
(hereinafter called the Fellowship)

2. Objects

The objects for which the Fellowship is established are:

(a) To advance the Evangelical Christian Faith which shall mean the Faith based upon the Doctrinal Basis of the Fellowship hereinafter contained.

(b) In furtherance of the above object but not further or otherwise,

(i) To promote the unity and welfare of congregations of Christian believers which are undenominational in constitution or which have come to occupy a position of detachment from the denominational bodies with which they had been associated but without necessarily altering their constitutions, all such congregations finding their unity on the basis of the common adherence to the fundamental doctrines of Protestant Evangelical Christianity as set forth in the Doctrinal Basis hereinafter contained.

(ii) To foster and encourage a recognition of the essential oneness of the Church of Christ and at the same time a recognition of the liberty of each individual congregation to conduct its work and worship in accordance with its own interpretation of the teaching of Holy Scripture in relation thereto.

(iii) To promote united testimony to and to defend the beliefs set forth in the Doctrinal Basis hereinafter contained.

(c) In furtherance of the above objects but not further or otherwise the Fellowship shall have the following powers:-

(i) To purchase or otherwise acquire real personal movable or immovable property of any kind and for any interest and to erect, alter, reconstruct and maintain buildings and to deal with and dispose of its property in whatsoever manner the Fellowship shall determine.

(ii) To receive gifts and legacies whether subject to any special trust or not.

(iii) To take such steps by personal and written appeals, public meetings or otherwise for raising money for the purposes of the Fellowship of any of them or for any other charitable purpose.

(iv) To borrow money and to charge the Fellowship's property in such manner as the Fellowship shall deem expedient.

(v) To invest any money belonging to the Fellowship in or upon such investments securities or other forms of real or personal property as the Fellowship may think fit and in all respects as if the Fellowship were the owner beneficially.

(vi) To employ and pay such officers, servants and professional and other advisers as the Fellowship may think fit for the carrying on of its objects and to establish and make payments for the provision of pensions and other benefits for such persons and their dependants.

(d) To do all such other things as are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the objects set out in Sub-Clauses (a) and (b) of this Clause and may be lawfully done by an association formed exclusively for charitable purposes.

3. Doctrinal Basis

What we believe

The churches of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches are committed to these truths of historic, biblical Christianity:

1. GOD

There is one God, who exists eternally in three distinct but equal persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God is unchangeable in his holiness, justice, wisdom and love. He is the almighty Creator, Saviour and Judge who sustains and governs all things according to his sovereign will for his own glory.

2. THE BIBLE

God has revealed himself in the Bible, which consists of the Old and New Testaments alone. Every word was inspired by God through human authors, so that the Bible as originally given is in its entirety the Word of God, without error and fully reliable in fact and doctrine. The Bible alone speaks with final authority and is always sufficient for all matters of belief and practice.

3. THE HUMAN RACE

All men and women, being created in the image of God, have inherent and equal dignity and worth. Their greatest purpose is to obey, worship and love God. As a result of the fall of our first parents, every aspect of human nature has been corrupted and all men and women are without spiritual life, guilty sinners and hostile to God. Every person is therefore under the just condemnation of God and needs to be born again, forgiven and reconciled to God in order to know and please him.

4. THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

The Lord Jesus Christ is fully God and fully man. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of a virgin, and lived a sinless life in obedience to the Father. He taught with authority and all his words are true. On the cross he died in the place of sinners, bearing God's punishment for their sin, redeeming them by his blood. He rose from the dead and in his resurrection body ascended into heaven where he is exalted as Lord of all. He intercedes for his people in the presence of the Father.

5. SALVATION

Salvation is entirely a work of God's grace and cannot be earned or deserved. It has been accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to all in the gospel. God in his love forgives sinners whom he calls, granting them repentance and faith. All who believe in Christ are justified by faith alone, adopted into the family of God and receive eternal life.

6. THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit has been sent from heaven to glorify Christ and to apply his work of salvation. He convicts sinners, imparts spiritual life and gives a true understanding of the Scriptures. He indwells all believers, brings assurance of salvation and produces increasing likeness to Christ. He builds up the Church and empowers its members for worship, service and mission.

7. THE CHURCH

The universal Church is the body of which Christ is the head and to which all who are saved belong. It is made visible in local churches, which are congregations of believers who are committed to each other for the worship of God, the preaching of the Word, the administering of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, for pastoral care and discipline, and for evangelism. The unity of the body of Christ is expressed within and between churches by mutual love, care and encouragement. True fellowship between churches exists only where they are faithful to the gospel.

8. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Baptism and the Lord's Supper have been given to the churches by Christ as visible signs of the gospel. Baptism is a symbol of union with Christ and entry into his Church but does not impart spiritual life. The Lord's Supper is a commemoration of Christ's sacrifice offered once for all and involves no change in the bread and wine. All its blessings are received by faith.

9. THE FUTURE

The Lord Jesus Christ will return in glory. He will raise the dead and judge the world in righteousness. The wicked will be sent to eternal punishment and the righteous will be welcomed into a life of eternal joy in fellowship with God. God will make all things new and will be glorified forever.

4. Register of Churches

(a) The Council shall keep a register of congregations which are within the description set out in Clause 2(b)(i) hereof and request their inclusion provided always that the Council shall only keep on the register such congregations as hold and subscribe to the doctrines contained in the Doctrinal Basis and as the Council shall for the time being determine to enter in such register, which congregations entered for the time being in the said register are hereinafter referred to as "Affiliated Churches".

(b) Every congregation desiring affiliation shall make application in writing for that purpose in a form approved by the Council which form shall include an expression of agreement with the Doctrinal Basis and of consent to such membership and shall be signed by not fewer than two persons duly authorised by the congregation applying. The Council may grant or withhold such affiliation.

5. Register of Ministers

(a) The Council shall compile and issue a register of ministers, whether attached to Affiliated Churches or not, who shall hold and subscribe to the doctrines contained in the Doctrinal Basis and whom the Council shall for the time being determine to include in such register and shall determine the classification appropriate for the sub-division of such register.

(b) The Council shall establish a Recognition Committee which shall advise it on the names which shall be included in such Register for the purpose of their recognition as genuine ministers of the gospel, who are, or have been in charge of recognised Christian congregations, whether Affiliated Churches or not, and the classification under which each of such names shall appear.

(c) A minister who desires his name to be included in the register of ministers shall make application in writing for that purpose in a form approved by the Council which form shall include an expression of agreement with the Doctrinal Basis and shall be personally signed by such minister. The Council in consultation with the Recognition Committee, may grant or refuse such application and may at any time, in consultation with the Recognition Committee, remove the name of such minister provided that no such name shall be removed unless the minister shall have had an opportunity of appearing before the Recognition Committee and being heard.

(d) All ministers included in the register of ministers shall be regarded as Associates (as hereinafter defined in Clause 7).

6. Membership

(a) The members of the Fellowship shall be all the Affiliated Churches. The first members shall be appointed by resolution of the meeting which adopts the Constitution.

(b) Membership of the Fellowship shall cease if the Affiliated Church shall resign by notice in writing or shall neglect to reaffirm agreement with the Doctrinal Basis regularly once every year under arrangements made by the Council, or shall neglect to reaffirm the same for one month after being specially requested so to do by the Council, or for any other reason if three fourths of those of the Council present and voting shall resolve to remove such Church, provided always that such a resolution shall not be effective unless not less than 21 days' notice shall have been given to all members of the Council and to the Affiliated Church concerned of such intended resolution and the Affiliated Church concerned shall have been given an opportunity of being heard.

7. Associates

Friends and sympathisers of the Fellowship may be admitted as Associates at the discretion of the Council, subject always to such Associates signifying in writing their agreement with the Doctrinal Basis regularly once every year under arrangements made by the Council, and additionally if and when called upon to do so. Associates shall be entitled to receive notice of and to take part in an Assembly (hereinafter defined) but not to vote. The Council shall have the right in consultation with the Recognition Committee to remove the name of an Associate from the list of Associates subject to his or her having been given an opportunity of being heard by the Recognition Committee.

8. Auxiliaries

With a view to the promotion of fellowship between churches and co-operative activities, Affiliated Churches may be grouped together under a scheme prepared and from time to time amended by the Council subject to the approval of the churches.

9. Assembly

(a) There shall be held once each year a general meeting of the Fellowship to be known as "the Annual Assembly" at such time and place as the Council shall appoint. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between each Annual Assembly.

(b) The Fellowship meeting in Assembly shall have full responsibility for the direction of the Fellowship. The authority of Assembly shall be limited to those actions and projects which its members shall have agreed together to undertake. Such activities shall in no way be exercised so as to infringe the autonomy of the Affiliated Churches. All matters of policy shall be decided by the Assembly and thereafter may be remitted to the Council for executive action. It shall be the responsibility of the Council to ensure that no decision shall be taken by the Assembly in any matter that it shall judge to be of importance to the Fellowship as a whole without reference first to the Affiliated Churches for their consideration.

(c) The Council may, whenever it thinks fit, convene an Extraordinary Assembly and shall convene such if requested so to do by not less than twenty Affiliated Churches.

(d) Each Affiliated Church shall be entitled to appoint three delegates to an Assembly, one of whom would normally be the minister.

(e) Members of Affiliated Churches shall be entitled to attend an Assembly with the same rights as Associates.

10. Notice of Assembly

The Annual Assembly and any Extraordinary Assembly shall be called by at least twenty-one days' notice in writing specifying the general nature of the business to be transacted and given to all Affiliated Churches and Associates.

11. Proceedings at the Assembly

(a) The quorum for the transaction of business shall be 100 delegates.

(b) The President of the Fellowship shall chair meetings of the Assembly or, in his absence, the Council shall appoint one of its number to do so.

(c) The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjourned meeting.

(d) At any Assembly a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, each delegate present having one vote, unless a secret ballot shall be demanded by the Chairman or by at least five delegates present and entitled to vote in which case a secret ballot shall be arranged at the Assembly in which each delegate present shall have one vote.

(e) Upon the request of one quarter of the delegates present and entitled to vote at any Assembly the decision on any resolution before the Assembly shall be deferred until the resolution has been referred to the Affiliated Churches and their wishes have been ascertained in such manner as the Chairman shall determine.

12. Council

(a) The officers of the Fellowship shall consist of a President, a Treasurer, and a General Secretary and they together with elected members shall constitute the Council.

(b) All Council members shall be in membership with an Affiliated Church or be an Associate.
No person shall be eligible to hold office in the Fellowship or be a member of the Council unless he shall give assent to and sign annually the doctrinal basis of the Fellowship and live a life worthy of the gospel. Should he fail to do so the Council may by resolution remove such a person and he shall thereupon cease to be a member.

(c) The President, Treasurer and General Secretary shall be appointed by the Council and may be removed by them, but their appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the Assembly. The President shall serve for one term of up to three years, commencing from the Assembly following that at which his appointment is confirmed.

(d) The Council shall include nationally elected members who shall serve for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-election. Nominations may be made by the churches or by the Council. Election shall be by postal ballot of the churches under arrangements made by the General Secretary, and the result shall be declared at the following Assembly.

(e) The Council shall also include members representing every Region of the country. These Regions shall be determined by the Council. Nominations shall be made by the churches in the region concerned. Elections shall be held by the churches in the Region under arrangements made by the General Secretary. Members representing the Regions shall serve for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-election.

(f) Retiring members of Council willing to continue to serve shall be regarded as duly nominated for re-election.

(g) Any casual vacancy amongst the officers or other members of the Council may be filled by the Council and the Council may add to its number by co-opting not more than five additional persons who fulfil the conditions laid down in Clause 12(b). All co-opted members shall retire at the next Annual Assembly but shall be eligible for re-election. The continuing members of the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but if their number shall fall below ten the continuing members may act for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Council or of summoning an Extraordinary Assembly but for no other purpose.

(h) The Council may delegate any of its powers, other than the power to remove an Affiliated Church, a name on the Register of Ministers or an Associate, to Committees consisting of such members as it thinks fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Council. Such Committee may add to its number such number of co-opted members not being members of the Council, as the Council may prescribe but each shall be a member of an Affiliated Church or be an Associate of the Fellowship.

(I) The Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of the proceedings of all the meetings of the Fellowship and of the Council and of Committees of the Council and all business transacted at such meetings and any such minute purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

(j) A meeting of the Council shall be convened by the General Secretary whenever he is requested to do so by the President, or any three members of the Council. The President shall chair Council Meetings or, in his absence, the Council shall appoint one of its members to do so. Questions arising at any Council meeting or at any Committee of the Council shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. The quorum for a Council meeting shall be ten.

13. Finance

No subscription shall be payable by Affiliated Churches and Associates, but the Council may invite donations and give such guidance as it shall think fit.

14. Accounts

(a) The Council shall cause true accounts to be kept of all sums of money received and expended by the Fellowship. The books of the Fellowship shall be open to inspection by the members by prior appointment. A Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure Account both duly audited shall be prepared and laid before the members of the Fellowship at the Annual Assembly. The Auditors shall be appointed annually at the Annual Assembly.

(b) Immovable property and investments belonging to the Fellowship shall be vested in The Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches Limited or such other trust corporation or two or more individual trustees as the Council may determine save that bank accounts shall be in the name of the Fellowship and shall be operated by such two or more persons being Council members or officers or employees of the Fellowship as the Council shall from time to time determine.

15. Amendments to Constitution

This Constitution may only be amended or a new Constitution adopted by three-fourths of the members present and voting at an Annual or Extraordinary Assembly in favour thereof and provided always that full particulars of the proposed alterations shall have been given at the previous Annual or Extraordinary Assembly and provided that full particulars thereof are also given in the notice convenient the meeting at which the proposed alterations are to be proposed. Provided lastly that no amendment shall be made or new constitution adopted as a result of which the Fellowship shall cease to be a charity.

16. Winding Up

The Fellowship may be wound up pursuant to a resolution passed by at least three-fourths of the members present and voting at an Annual or Extraordinary Assembly in the notice convening which notice is given of the proposed resolution.

17. Dissolution

If upon the winding up of the Fellowship there shall after the discharge of all liabilities be any assets then remaining the same shall be paid or applied for such charitable purposes for the advancement of the Evangelical Christian Faith in accordance with the Fellowship's Doctrinal Basis or a Doctrinal Basis similar thereto as the members at or before the time of dissolution may determine and if and so far as effect cannot be given to this provision then to some other charitable object.

APPENDIX B

STATEMENT ON ECUMENISM

All gospel-loving Christians face many kinds of tension, but there is one particular way in which we are increasingly pressurised at the present time. Since the formation of the Churches Together movement in 1991, with its avowed aim to pursue ecumenism at the local level, we are constantly being urged to join other churches in united services, prayer meetings, marches and evangelistic activities.

If all the other local churches and their leaders involved in a united activity are wholly committed to the one true gospel there is no problem. Indeed the FIEC desires to encourage that kind of true and biblical ecumenism.

Often, however, some of the churches and leaders with whom we are urged to unite neither believe nor preach those essential gospel truths which are embodied in our FIEC Doctrinal Basis or a similar Statement of Faith. Some do not accept the inerrancy of Scripture, the eternal punishment of the unsaved, or that Christ died bearing the punishment due to sinners.

Some deny the deity of Christ, his virgin birth, miracles and literal resurrection. Others teach that religious ceremonies such as baptism, the mass and the adoration of Mary have some saving efficacy.

The FIEC has always felt it to be confusing and unbiblical to unite in public acts of worship and outreach with those who question and deny the faith. Our Doctrinal Basis, What We Believe, clearly states, 'True fellowship between churches exists only where they are faithful to the gospel.'

If an evangelical church or leader unites with those of a liberal persuasion who deny essential gospel truths, or with those of a Roman Catholic persuasion who add to the gospel, then great confusion is created.

The impression is given either that the evangelical, liberal and Roman Catholic are all agreed when in fact they are worlds apart doctrinally, or that their different messages are equally valid when in fact there is only one gospel. Not only is this confusing but it is also a contradiction of the gospel on which our FIEC churches unite.

The gospel of salvation by grace is so precious to us that we desire to stand together with all who believe and preach it. For the same reason, we are compelled to remain separate from those who deny it. By taking this position we are seeking to follow the commands of Scripture. (Galatians 1:8, Romans 16:17).

APPENDIX C

COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Elections take place over a three-year cycle with approximately one third of the Council being elected on each occasion. The pattern is as follows:

2000/2001 National election for 11 Council members
(Next national election - 2003/2004)

2001/2002 Regional elections when 12 Regional Representatives are elected from the following regions: Scottish; Northern; Central Northern; West Midlands; Welsh; Eastern
(Next election in these regions - 2004/2005)

2002/2003 Regional elections when 10 Regional Representatives are elected from the following regions: North Western; East Midlands; Central; South Western; South Eastern
(Next election in these regions - 2005/2006)

PROCEDURE FOR NATIONAL ELECTIONS

SEPTEMBER	The Office writes to all affiliated churches advising them of the forthcoming election and requesting nominations
End NOVEMBER	Closing date by which churches must submit names of men they wish to nominate

JANUARY	Office circulates ballot papers to churches with notes of the men nominated
MARCH	Closing date of ballot
APRIL	Declaration of election results at the Annual Assembly

PROCEDURE FOR REGIONAL ELECTIONS

JULY	The Office writes to churches advising them of the forthcoming election and requesting that they - [i] review the Visitor arrangements in their area [ii] submit nominations for Regional elections
End SEPTEMBER	Closing date by which churches inform the Office of any changes to their Visitor arrangements. The Office writes to Visitors and Regional Representatives to ask if they are willing to stand for election to the Council
End OCTOBER	Closing date by which the Office will have collated nominations for Regional elections
JANUARY	The Office circulates ballot papers to churches
MARCH	Closing date of ballot
APRIL	Declaration of election results at the Annual Assembly

APPENDIX D

THE ROLE OF A VISITOR

This outline explains the role of an FIEC 'Visitor'. This position of privilege and responsibility arose directly from the requests of FIEC churches to receive periodic visits from those who can provide information, fellowship and help.

Visitors have already done much to encourage Pastors and Church Leaders and to enhance fellowship between independent evangelical churches - some not affiliated to the Fellowship.

The Responsibilities of a Visitor

1 This is in no sense a position of authority. Visitors are willing servant-brothers who desire to help but not to interfere in the affairs of local churches.

Churches themselves choose their Visitor. He may come from a church within the group he serves or from elsewhere as the group may choose. It is important that all the churches of a group have complete confidence in the one who serves as its Visitor.

2 A Visitor is asked to serve for a period of up to three years. Churches are encouraged to review the position of their Visitor before regional elections are held. This is particularly appropriate as a man approaches 70. There is a gentlemen's agreement that men of this age will not stand for election to the Council.

Visitors set aside a day, one or two evenings or a similar amount of time each month to visit the churches of their group. The FIEC undertakes to pay their travelling expenses, although it is hoped that as churches benefit from their ministry they will contribute to the costs.

The purpose of each visit is to encourage Pastors and Church Officers, advise when asked to do so, convey information and strengthen ties between churches.

3 A Visitors' Conference is normally held each year. Visitors share the concerns of the churches they serve and endeavour to plan ways in which to give help designed to meet precise needs that they have observed among the churches.

4 Visitors are encouraged to meet together within their Region from time to time to co-ordinate those regional activities that are appropriate.

5 The Council sometimes asks Visitors to help by discharging some of its responsibilities. They may, for example, interview people or visit churches in their area that apply for affiliation. In this way Visitors help to decentralise the activities of the Fellowship.

6 Visitors are encouraged to allow their names to go forward for election as Regional Representatives to the Council although this is not a necessary part of being a Visitor.

7 The 'Churches Recognition and Care Committee' has been appointed by the Council to look after the Visitor scheme.

Each member of the Committee has the responsibility to keep in touch with several Visitors for their encouragement and to convey information. So, each Visitor has a 'contact person' who is a member of the 'Churches Recognition and Care Committee'.

8 It is important for each group to appoint a Visitor in order to facilitate consultation between the Council and churches. Without a Visitor churches may be unrepresented at conferences and may not receive information or news of developments so quickly. The Council is concerned that all affiliated churches have the opportunity to make their voice heard.

If you have questions or are uncertain about any aspect of the Visitor scheme please contact the FIEC Office.

APPENDIX E

FIEC PASTORS' ASSOCIATION

Launched at FIEC's annual gathering at Caister, Norfolk, in 1998, the Pastors' Association has grown rapidly so that it now numbers around 260 members.

It is a body committed to upholding biblical standards in church and ministry. Members enjoy accreditation by an association that has significance and value because of its high standards of acceptance, discipline and pastoral care.

Among its activities it supports and cares for serving pastors, encourages training for young men entering the pastoral ministry and acts as a link for pastors seeking a church and for churches seeking a pastor. It provides forums where issues of special concern can be addressed and help given and received.

There are four categories of membership. Serving ministers are men in pastoral charge who have served for at least three years; itinerant ministers are men who have served in pastoral charge for at least three years and are now available to preach in churches; retired ministers are men who wish to continue their association, but are no longer in pastoral charge and not available for itinerant ministry; probationer ministers are men in pastoral charge with less than three years' service. Trainee or prospective ministers may apply for associate membership.

For further details please contact the FIEC Pastors' Association Secretary, the Rev Malcolm Laver, 3 Church Road, CROYDON CR0 1SG; or his secretarial assistant, Mrs Rosemary Mingard, ☎/FAX 0208 680 8566. e-mail: rosemary.mingard@talk21.com

APPENDIX F

PREPARED FOR SERVICE

This is FIEC's own programme of training which mobilises people for work in local churches. It is both practical and flexible. Sixteen modules, over two years, each lasting three days, are held at the Carey Centre, Reading.

Theological studies major on the central doctrines of scripture whilst a Bible overview gives a complete picture of its scope. Many practical subjects are also tackled including training in leadership, understanding contemporary society, preparing sermons/talks and working in small groups.

When they are not at Reading, course members are working through their assignments and gaining valuable experience in local churches.

Prepared for Service also publishes materials for use by local church leaders. These are designed to train people in a local church setting and provide an inter-active programme of study and task-orientated features which encourage church members to reach their potential as leaders.

For further information on these and other training initiatives through FIEC please contact the Prepared for Service co-ordinator, Mr David Matson, at Lapithos, 1 Bower Road, Queens Park, BOURNEMOUTH BH8 9HQ. ☎/FAX 01202 303263. e-mail: davidmatson@tesco.net

APPENDIX G

FIEC LIMITED

FIEC Ltd is a registered charity and Trust Corporation which manages the trusts of some 230 evangelical churches (not all of which are affiliated to FIEC). Its doctrinal basis is that of the Fellowship and its directors include members of the FIEC Council and other men experienced in law, finance and the management of property.

The company's function is to safeguard a church's doctrinal position and other conditions of its Trust Deed as long as the church meets on the trust premises. Otherwise it is not involved with the day to day affairs of a church. Responsibility for church working funds remains in the hands of the church and its officers.

Corporate trusteeship relieves a church of the inconvenience and expense of up-dating a trust deed because individual Trustees change and it lifts the burden of legal liability from local individual trustees.

If you would like further information about any matter relating to trusts please contact The Company Secretary, FIEC Limited,
3 Church Road, Croydon CR0 1SG. ☎ 0208 667 1821.

APPENDIX H

THE EVANGELICAL HOUSING ASSOCIATION

FIEC is represented on the Management Committee of the Evangelical Housing Association which began its work in 1974. Its aim is to provide pastors with retirement accommodation in the area of their choice as far as possible. To date it has purchased 14 properties. The EHA can be contacted through its honorary secretary, Eddie Root, at 7 Allen Road, Great Bookham, LEATHERHEAD, Surrey KT23 4SL. ☎ 01372 454855.

GO TEACH PUBLICATIONS LTD

Go Teach has been serving the churches in their work of teaching God's Word to children and young people for nearly 50 years. Many changes in style and layout have taken place since the original FIEC publication, Feed My Lambs, first appeared in 1946. FIEC works in co-operation with the Evangelical Movement of Wales and the Grace Baptist Sunday School Association in producing these materials which emphasise the authority of the Bible as the Word of God. Each age group is supplied with its own teacher's book and activity leaflets/workbooks.

Go Teach is based in Sandbach, Cheshire, and can be contacted at Unit 3T, Zan Industrial Park, Crewe Road, Wheelock, SANDBACH, Cheshire CW11 0QD. ☎ 01270 768387.
